every Saturday evening, at St. Albans Bay.

St. John the Baptist Benevolent Society (Canadian) meets on the first and third Wednesdays evening of each month at their hall over E. H.
Huntington's Store.

To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANS-CRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office.
Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

THE ATTENTION of the public generally and the ladies in particular is called to the advertisement in another column, of Stone & Foster's new Store, of Ladies' Furnishing Goods, &c.

THE OFFICIAL CANVASS.—The official canvass of the votes cast for Governor at the last State election shows the following result:

Pace,	42,615
Edwards,	15,289
Scattering,	1
Total vote,	57,905
Page's majority.	27,325

Returns from the towns of Brookline in Windham county, Richford in Franklin county and Woodford in Bennington county were not received. An unofficial count, however, shows that these towns gave 98 Republican majority, swelling Gov. Page's majority in the State to 27,433.

LAKE STREET.—A line of gas pipe is being laid through Lake Street, but the gas light in our office don't improve much; what's the matter?

MR. RUGGS BUILDINGS.—We are pleased to notice the rapid progress to completion of Mr. B. F. Rugg's house, on South Main Street, recently destroyed by fire. The main part of the house is already rebuilt, and the addition is enclosed. Mr. Rugg exhibits commendable energy in overcoming his misfortunes.

Legislature of Vermont—1868.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, Oct. 9.

Prayer by the Chaplain.
Journal of yesterday read and approved.

The President then vacated the chair which was taken by the Secretary, and the Senate proceeded by ballot to the election of a President pro-tem.

Senator Barlow nominated Senator George W. Hendee of Lamoille.

Senator Dale of Essex, seconded the nomination of Senator Hendee.

Senator Hendee was unanimously elected and took the oath of office.

Senator Burt introduced a bill for the "Restoration of sea fish to the rivers of Vermont."

Read twice and referred to the Committee on Printing.

The Senate then, on motion of Senator Dewey, elected the following Standing Committees:

Simpson, Halbert.

On Federal Relations—Messrs. Hard, Clark, Heath.

On Highways and Bridges—Messrs.
Leonard, Hutchinson of Franklin, Goodell.

AFTERNOON.

The Governor notified the Senate of the appointment of Capt. Samuel E.
Bartram as Secretary of Civil and Military Affairs, and that at three o'clock he would transmit his Annual Message.

At three o'clock the Governor transmitted his Annual Message, which was read by the Secretary.

On motion of Mr. Orient, the message was ordered to lie, and one thousand copies to be printed for the use of the Senate.

R. solution by Mr. Dewey, that a Committee of two Senators be appointed to wait upon His Honor, Stephen Thorne, and inform him of his election as Lieut.
Governor.

The President appointed Senators Lewey and Clark, who reported immediately that they had discharged the duty of their appointment, and that the Lieut. Governor elect was present and ready to take the oath of office.

The oath of office was then administered, and his honor addressed the Senate as follows:

Senators.—Having been summoned a second time by the freemen of the State to the responsible duty of presiding over your deliberations, and being aware of the unmerited honor conferred, I have not words to convey to you and them my profound gratitude for this mark of their approbation and confidence. Deeply sensible of the varied responsibilities attending the office, I accept it with diligence, but with the humble trust that I shall receive the aid and co-operation of each member of this Senate, without which I am aware that I could not succeed to my own satisfaction, much less to that of yourselves and your constituents, I indulge the hope that whatever you may find to do will be done with all dispatch compatibly with the interest of the people, and that your session may be short and to you memorable and happy.

The Senate then adjourned.

BURLINGTON BUSINESS COLLEGE.—The fall term of this College will open October 5th, and continue in session during the year. Our readers will remember that this institution is to be a consolidation of the Bryant and Stratton College at Burlington and the Vermont Commercial College at St. Albans, under the instruction of J. H. Lansbury a proprietor. The new college will open with excellent facilities for young men and young ladies to gain a thorough business education. The rooms are being refitted and renovated, with a view to comfort and convenience. Prof. S. M. Pratt, of the St. Albans College will be one of the instructors.

Let those who have detected the premature evidences of age—the tell-tale whitening of the locks, the unnatural thinning of the covering which nature designed should be preserved to the period of dissolution, lose no time in securing a bottle of "Barrett's Vegetable Restorative," the great antidote to baldness, gray hair, and wigs.—Budget Express

The Poor Man's Friend.—Doctor's bills are too long for a poor man's pocket, but many of them may be avoided by keeping GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE in the cupboard. It is the "precious ot of ointment," curing burns, cuts, scalds, blisters, sprains, wounds, chilblains, chapped hands, &c. Mothers, do not neglect to save your husband's hard-earned money, but purchase a box of this salve, only 25 cents.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.—The pianoforte has long been the popular home and concert instrument, yet in point of swelling and sustaining the tones is extremely defective. On account of this deficiency, music written in chords, or in a connected style, cannot be satisfactorily executed, as the long notes result in diminished tones where they should be sustained. The taste for the Organ and orchestral style of music will supersede the present piano compositions. There are no instruments capable of such fine expressions in this style of music as the AMERICAN ORGANS, manufactured by Messrs. S. D. & H. W. Smith, of Boston.
Their delicacy and variety in the voice-ing renders them susceptible of beautiful orchestral effects, by the skillful use of the tremolo and the improved knee swell while the deep manual sub-bass which is added to the new styles, gives the closest resemblance to the pipe organ.

SENATOR HENDERSON.—We are pleased to notice the rapid progress to
completion of Mr. B. F. Rugg's house,
on South Main Street, recently destroyed
by fire. The main part of the house is already rebuilt, and the addition is enclosed. Mr. Rugg exhibits commendable energy in overcoming his misfortunes.

A friend of ours trod on a rusty nail which penetrated his foot for about one inch. He used Remond's Pain Kill lotion thoroughly, and cured it without trouble. This Magic Oil is what every family needs in the house.
